SMALL BATCH COOKING & LOCAL PRODUCE

Our dishes are 100% homemade where they can be, and those that aren't are full of locally sourced produce created with the help of local and British producers. To save on waste we only cook in small batches, meaning your food is freshly prepared, but it also means when it's gone, it's gone. So enjoy it while it lasts, but don't worry if you miss out today it'll be back tomorrow!

LOVELY LOCAL PRODUCE

One of the benefits of being 100% independent is that we get to choose who we work with for 100% of our food supply, so where does it all come from...meat and poultry from Joseph Morris, cheese from The Leicestershire Handmade Cheese Co., pork pies and ham from Sercombes, salad, veg and edible flowers from Stanford Hall CSA (when available), sweet treats from Bakes Brownies, ice cream from Dreamy Cow, bread from John Dwyer Bakery, pastries from For Goodness Cake, herbs from our garden and occasionally when we're lucky we even get fresh veggies from David's allotment juts across the road right here in Catthorpe (Thanks Dave!).

MORE THAN JUST FOOD AND DRINK

We love to work with our suppliers to not only bring great produce but we're also planning some interesting events too. We've already been lucky enough to host Rugby Distillery for their fab gin tasting evenings and would love to do more events like this, to showcase not only our food and our great local producers, but also the range of drinks that compliment our menu.

So watch this space for some tasting and food pairing events coming soon!
